

Kaibab-Vermilion Cliffs Heritage Alliance Mission Statement/Goals

MISSION STATEMENT

The mission of the Kaibab-Vermilion Cliffs Heritage Alliance is to help protect and preserve the cultural resources of the eastern Arizona Strip region.

The Alliance will achieve its mission by bringing together interested agencies, tribes, organizations, and individuals to focus and maximize efforts to monitor, document, manage, research, and interpret the region's cultural resources.

GOALS

- Assist agency archaeologists in protecting and managing sites
- Support research to better understand the human and cultural relationships both prehistorically and historically
- Support applied research that can provide information useful to land managers as they make decisions regarding cultural resources
- Consult with archaeologists and historians to identify sites that may be at risk from various land use impacts, and support agency archaeologists to avoid or mitigate damage
- Organize and assist with volunteer projects, field schools, and other activities to identify and inventory cultural sites
- Facilitate communication and share information among agencies and the cultural resource community
- Coordinate and develop, with governmental agencies, appropriate interpretation of the area's cultural history for the public
